Submission Guidelines for Article/Research Paper

Law Colloquy Journal of Legal Studies (LCJLS) is a peer-reviewed journal, and no manuscript will be finally accepted for publication until it has completed the peer review process, including rewriting by the author(s) to satisfy peer review comments, under the direction of the Editor-in-Chief.

Certificate of publication

Certificate for publication will be provided for your manuscript.

Themes

Law Colloquy Journal of Legal Studies (LCJLS) promotes submissions on a wide range of topics, based on analysing legal and contemporary issues, policy decisions, case studies, proposing/recommending legislative reforms or judgement analysis.

Submission Guidelines

Kindly follow the submission process as follows:

- ⇒ Register yourself at our official website lawcolloquy.com
- ⇒ Go to your account and select add paper.
- ⇒ Read carefully and follow all the necessary instructions mentioned for submission on the page.
- ⇒ Upload cover letter (title of the manuscript, name, designation, email id, mobile number (WhatsApp) and institution/affiliation of the author(s)/contributor(s)).
- ⇒ Write keywords (3-5 words)
- ⇒ Upload Abstract (300 words)
- ⇒ Upload paper (4000-8000, excluding references)

- All submission should be in an electronic form in the word document only in an editable file format (i.e., not PDF).
- It should be processed in MS Office 2007 onwards.
- Authors are requested to adhere to the word limit.
- Submissions must be original. By submitting the manuscript, the author undertakes that it has not been submitted, accepted or published elsewhere.
- The maximum number of co-authors permitted is two. If there are multiple corresponding authors, then one should be nominated for communication with the editorial board.
- All submissions should be attached with a cover letter mentioning the title of the paper, name, designation, email id, mobile number (WhatsApp), and institution/affiliation of the author. Failure to submit full information would result in outright rejection of the submission.
- The author(s) must not mention their name or any information disclosing their identity in the manuscript. This is required to ensure a fair reviewing process. Information about the author(s) shall ONLY be mentioned in the covering letter.
- The decision on the acceptance of the manuscript for publication shall be of the editorial board which is final.
