

Workshop on Significant provisions for Women in the Indian Legal System

Aim & Objectives of the workshop

There are various provisions in the Indian legal system specifically for women, which every woman must know. The workshop's objective is to discuss the legal rights and relevant provisions under the Indian Law.

Outcomes of the Workshop

- We adopt a case study approach to raise awareness of legal norms pertaining to women related issues, in private dwellings, workplace, or public space, such as harassment/stalking, assault, discrimination, and domestic violence.
- The program dynamically links the different facets of law applicable in everyday life.

It specifies various aspects and laws related to women and their rights, provisions against abuse, divorce, property, maintenance, custody etc.
